

MOMENTUM

Where Momentum Becomes Magic

Creative brilliance demands momentum. In Media & Entertainment, progress isn't optional—it's everything.

Bluescape gives teams the space to move: to create, review, and decide faster, all in one fluid motion. It's not just a workspace. It's where ideas ignite, teams align, and action accelerates.

Built for the fast-paced, asset-heavy world of production, Bluescape becomes your creative command center—bringing all your visuals, feedback, and decisions into one frictionless flow.

No compression

No asset limits

No “make a new board” errors

Just clarity, speed, and momentum

Kill the Friction

This isn't your basic Miro or Mural. It's your fast lane from ideation to green light.

› See Every Pixel, Approve Every Detail

Show assets at full fidelity, no compression loss, no rendering lag.

› No Board Limits, No Slowdowns

Build bigger worlds without getting out of the flow.

› Speak Your Mind, Save the Moment

Create voice notes in the workspace.
Feedback, captured.

› Breakout. Reconnect. Repeat.

Enable live breakout discussions inside the same shared space and reconnect with a click.

› Frame-by-Frame Video Collaboration

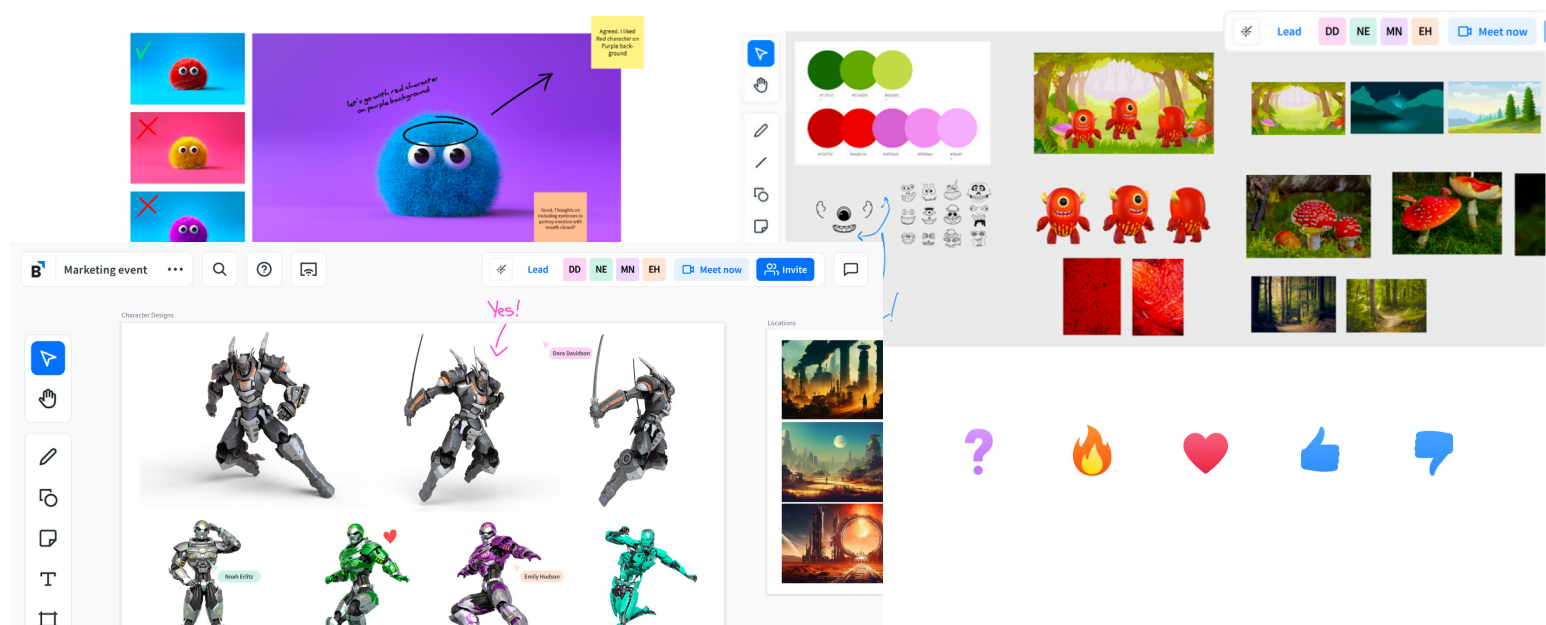

Watch, annotate, and comment across locations.

› Hit the Ground Creating

Get straight to work with templates built for storyboarding, reviews, and fast-moving productions.

› Less Back-and-Forth. More Done-and-Dusted.

Collect every note, cut the noise, and approve without the drama.

Designed for Forward Motion

Bluescape is designed for the kind of creative work that breaks other tools. Where other platforms fragment the process, Bluescape brings it together, with unmatched fidelity and speed.

› Art and Animatic Reviews

Ultra high-res support without compression. Pin comments to the pixel. Drop voice notes in real time. Every frame, every note, captured.

› Storyboarding and Scene Planning

Lay out entire story arcs without board limits. Collaborate live or async to lock scenes and move on.

› Executive Reviews and Pitch Presentations

One space for high-res visuals, synced video playback, and team input. No version chaos. No email hunts. Just clarity.

› Cross-Studio Coordination

Work across studios and time zones without losing context. Everything's in one place—even when you're not.

› Creative Breakouts and Iteration Loops

Break into focused groups without leaving the board. Regroup instantly to align and approve.

Hollywood's Heavyweights Use Bluescape

Netflix, Marvel, Warner Bros., Sony, Paramount, FX—plus the ones we can't talk about. 😊
